ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1968

A smile at the Pep Club Breakfast.

Now how are we all gunna hold our dance?

We'll meet you on the field at 3 o'clock.

I'M the Lone Scotsman!

"Buffalo the Indians" was the Highland Homecoming '68 slogan. And buffalo the Humboldt Indians they did, with a great score of 20 to 7. The Scotsmen started on the warpath Tuesday, Oct. 8 with a pep assembly. Wednesday featured the skit and candidates' presentation. Friday's activities began with the Pep Club's breakfast at Jimmy's. The royalty was crowned at the coronation assembly, where Jud Evans and Janice Linden were crowned King and Queen by Dave Elmeer, assisted by pages Nancy and Barb Grossman. After the game, Friday night the Scotsmen held their victory dance, "Heather on the Hill".

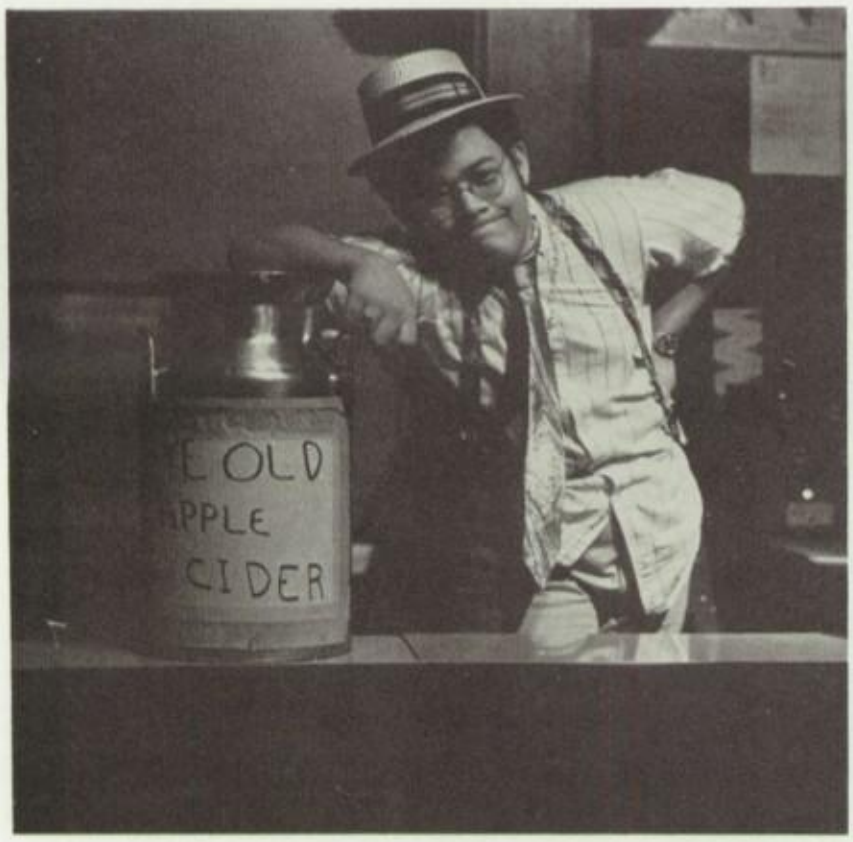
The cake eaters win again.

The sky is falling!

Sadie Hawkins descended on Highland boys Friday night, Oct. 15 in one fell swoop. Most boys did not run fast enough, so there was a fantastic turnout at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

A skit started off the festivities on Wednesday, Oct. 13. Thursday, The Sadie Hawkins Newspaper was sold, which included such spectacular articles as the traditional story of Sadie Hawkins, and gossip about some of the couples.

The dance, sponsored by the cheerleaders, was a huge success. The Blue Surge furnished the music for the evening. Booths were sponsored by many of the after-school clubs.



"These two are for Dr. Barnard."

"I will NOT kiss your feet!"

"Yodel-odel lay-hee hoo!"

The swimmers are sinking fast!

OUR TOWN

Theater-goers have been visiting Grovers Corners, New Hampshire for years through Thorton Wilder's play Our Town. Highland had the opportunity to visit it when the Scotch Capers presented Our Town on Dec. 5 and 6.

This play is unusual because it uses pantomine instead of stage props and leaves scenery to the imagination. Through the efforts of the cast, stage crew, costumers, make-up committee, and Director Mr. Dick Morrison, the evening was very enjoyable.

Sno-Days 1969

It's Sno Wonder! Highland began 1969 Sno-Days activities on Monday, January 20 with a hockey game. Wednesday featured the candidate presentation assembly, with a humorous skit. There were swim meets, hockey games, basketball games, gymnastics and wrestling meets all week. Thursday the Pep Club sponsored a pancake breakfast.

Friday began with the coronation assembly, after which students with Sno-Days buttons were dismissed from school to participate in Sno-Days activities. These activities included a class tug-of-war, swimming, skating, broomball, snow sculpture and hockey. The week's festivities ended Friday evening with a mixer, featuring the Metropolitan Soul. It's Sno Wonder that everyone had fun!

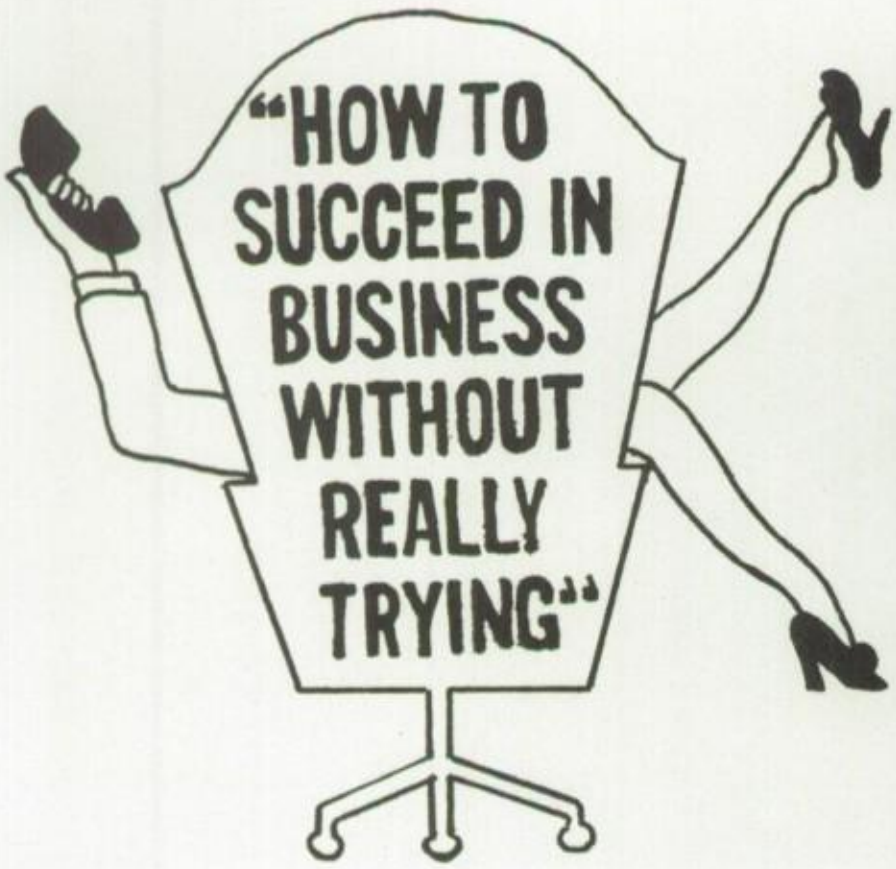
Intermission at the dance



Under the direction of Miss Joyce Kraulik and Mr. Dick Morrison, the Highland Park School Choir presented "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" on February 27, 28 and March 1. The Frank Loesser and Abe Burrows Musical tells the story of a young window washer's quick rise in the business world and the situations he encounters on the way. The choir's many hours of diligent rehearsal were rewarded by the warm reception which the production received.

Sept. 6 Green, depleted Highland meets the veteran Prexies, but Weiden's 66 yd. TD run breaks the ice for the 1st '68 victory. Sept. 12 The tough Govies turn a fumble recovery and an interception into two 4th quarter scores, downing the unjelled Scots after 3 well-fought quarters. Sept. 16 Co-captain Catlin leads Highland with a 3 touchdown effort over an inspired Mechanics team. Sept. 27 Central grabs an HP fumble on the second play from scrimmage, and returns it for their only score. The Scot defense really shines, containing the Minutemen's tremendous speed and ability and the offense produces 7 points to tie the city champs. Oct. 3 A lone scoring drive and a sparkling defense with Mike Funk and co. gives the Scots a "sweet victory" over Harding. Oct. 11 The Scots bring home a well-played "team victory" over the talented Indians. Oct. 25 Highland's decisive, and first-ever victory over Murray comes as the offense, with Evan's 14 points, brutalizes the Pilots. Oct. 31 Monroe is devestated by a stunning Scot offense, featuring a 28 point 2nd half.

Lettermen's Club

Members of Highland's 11 varsity sports once again joined forces to take the All-City Sports Award, displaying the kind of ability and desire which is rapidly becoming the Scots' trademark. The Lettermen's Club, as the social and public relations branch of the sports department, sponsored a papersale, and provided the Homecoming honor guard. The club sponsored and publicized the WDGY Wonders and the Faculty-Varsity basketball games, the proceeds of which helped finance the 3rd Annual Spring Sports Banquet.

WDGY Wonders

Highland's Faculty Bloodsplashers once again put a tourniquet to the WDGY Wonders' devastating attack in their dramatic match on Dec. 1st. The Splashers, led by the Junior High's own Mr. Hoverson, were able to clot the Wonders' drive, featuring their towering "Monster Man" and thereby produce a 52 to 40 win. The Faculty relied strongly on transfusions from "Sink or Swim" Mandery, "Never Sweat" Lorenz, Herr Cameron — "The Red Baron", "Muscles" Benepe, "Rubber Arms" Larson and "Deadeye" Podas to down the outmanned and outgunned WDGY Wonders. The proceeds of this year's game go to the Lettermen's Club, who sponsored and promoted the second annual event.

The Highland Park hockey team experienced a year of ups and downs, but mostly downs. The Scots skated to a 4-5-3 conference mark on the strength of consistently fine performances by All-City goalie Mike Funk. Bob Nelson and Steve Smasal were named to the All-City honorable mention list. Coach Jim Davis pointed out that injuries and the failure to discover the right combination of offense and defense hampered the Highland sextet. However, the Scotsmen demonstrated their championship form when they downed co-champions Harding, and Johnson. Highland was the only city team to earn such distinction.

Prospects for next season are very promising since 12 of 18 players will be returning.

Varsity Wrestling

Three was a big number for the 1968—1969 Highland Park wrestling team. Coach Dick Benepe's grapplers captured their third consecutive Christmas wrestling tournament title. The Scotsmen claimed three individual championships, Tim Wallen (120 pounds), Captain Greg Ellsworth (127), and Dick Janisch (133). The team demonstrated excellent balance and depth as all eleven Highland entrants contributed to the team scoring total.

In city conference action the Scots posted a 5-3 record which earned them fourth place. Wallen and Ellsworth, both undefeated in conference matches, were named to the All-City first team while Janisch and Rex Chiapuzio (138) were selected to the second team.

The Scotsmen placed fourth in District 15 competition as Wallen, Ellsworth, and Janisch reigned as champs in their respective weight classes and advanced to the Region IV tournament. Tom Andler (95), Greg Kruse (154), and Marv Fischer (heavyweight) earned third place honors in the district tourney.

Gymnastics

Coach Dale Weiss' Highland gymnasts registered a 6-2 record in city conference competition, earning them third place.

Co-captains Mark Berman and Gary Rose, Bill Mathews, Denny McKibben, and Steve Chase led the junior-dominated squad to a third place finish in the Region IV Meet.

Coach Weiss expressed much praise for the three seniors on the squad. He remarked that Rose performed exceptionally well for three years on the horse. Mr. Weiss praised McKibben for making the most progress of anyone, in his first year of competition. He also pointed out that Tom Kaysen displayed good potential in his two years of competition on the horse.

With 13 gymnasts, six of whom lettered, returning next year, Highland's future in gymnastics is bright.

Varsity Basketball

The candle burned brightly, then flickered, burned brightly once again, and then was extinguished . . .

So went the fortunes of Coach Pete Vujovich and the Highland Park basketball team. The Scotsmen catapulted into first place on the impetus of victories in their first six outings. However they dropped five of the next six games and faltered into a fourth place tie in the final city conference standings.

The Scots were down but not out as they rallied to victories over Murray and Johnson in District 15 competition. Then the flame was squelched by Central, 63-48, in the district finals.

Captain Doug Eha, fourth in conference scoring with a 17.2 pt. average, paced the Scotsmen throughout the season and was thusly honored. He was named to All-City, All-Metropolitan, and All-State teams.

Other key players included seniors Todd Wiessner (All-City Honorable Mention), Bill Weiden and Jack Hughes, junior Tom Jefferson, and sophomore Ken Agranoff.

Tankers Make It a Habit — No. 1

Captain Gerry Tepley cracked a long-standing conference record in the 100 Freestyle, and was the Scotsmen's highest state meet finisher.

The Scot mermen and Coach Wayne Mandery ascended the local swimming throne once again after a year of decisive Triple Crown domination. Record-breaking individual and team performances brought Highland a 13 — 4 over-all record and its best state dual-meet rank — 6th place.

Undefeated in conference action, the team accomplished another District 15 whitewashing and then drowned Mpls. Washburn for the Twin City title, capping their third victorious conquest as Triple Crown champs. The fifteen seniors may now claim the proud distinction of never suffering defeat to a Twin City school.

Senior Gerry Tepley received special recognition from the District coaches when he was awarded the Rosene Trophy, presented to the year's outstanding athlete, scholar, and all-around citizen.

The exceptional depth displayed by the tankers, and a shining crop of underclassmen assured the Scotsmen no diminish in success next year.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the direction of Mr. Kent Van Meter, is the main student government of the school. Every homeroom elects a representative, and there are two representatives-at-large for each class.

This year the Student Council innovated many projects. After much heated debate, they passed a dress code which allows girls to wear slacks to school. A sound-off box was installed in the bookstore, and identification cards were distributed.

Host of the District Student Council Convention and Secretary of the All-City Student Council were functions performed by Highland's council during the year.

Council members planned, prepared and publicized Homecoming and Sno-Days activities and also operated the bookstore. A canned foods drive for migrant workers was conducted as the Student Council's annual service project.

Tartan

If you have ever been at school at 5:30 A.M. or P.M. or on Saturdays, and have walked by Room 107, you have probably seen busy students working on the Tartan. Frustration, headaches, disgust, and fatigue have been the lot of this noble staff. Frantically trying to meet the deadlines, the editors and staff took pictures, laid out pages, sold ads, wrote copy, and did all the other work necessary for a good yearbook. We are proud to present to you our final product, and we hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed working on it!

Highland Park High has won many newspaper awards for The Plaid Line. This year that award-winning tradition has continued with Editor John Lemon. With the advice of Mr. Robert Berendt many excellent issues of The Plaid Line have been printed. This year there have been some especially controversial letters from the students.

Pep Club

One of the most important clubs that promotes school spirit is the Pep Club. This club has been quite active in supporting Highland's sports and activities.

The Pep Club started the year out with a "pop" on Red and White Day, when Highlanders launched balloons all over the country. During the year, the members organized a spectator card section, sat together in pep assemblies, and had pep fests. They also sponsored the Homecoming and Sno-Days' Breakfasts.

Scotties

Winter Carnival!! These were the magic words to the Scotties this year, after having taken much time and effort in preparation for marching in the Winter Carnival Parade.

The Scotties served as ushers, hostesses, guides, and morale-boosters throughout the year. They marched at football and basketball games and supported all sports teams.

Included in their year were: a performance in Austin, Minnesota, a Sadie Hawkins booth, and several breakfasts and dinners. The year ended with The Scotties' Alumni Tea.

Part of our football and basketball half-time entertainment is the vivacious dancing of the Highlanders. Besides a new name, the Highlanders have new uniforms, bought with money raised in their fall candy sale.

The Highlanders, led by Patty Keys, are the official score-keepers and timers for the swimming team. They have brightened up many basketball and football games.

Chorus

This year Highland students had the opportunity to participate in and listen to many different types of vocal music. This occurred when the Madrigal Singers became extra-curriculer, and the Camerata class was initiated. These, plus the A and Girls' Choirs were very active this year under the direction of Miss Joyce Kraulik. Besides participating in assemblies, the choirs performed at churches, hospitals, and several choral pageants and workshops. They also produced the musical How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. A candy sale in the fall raised enough money to buy new uniforms. The members also planned an out-of-town trip for April.

Gais Francais! Even in the summer, the French Club was busy raising money by sponsoring a paper sale. They held a car wash in the fall and used the proceeds to aid a young French girl needing heart surgery. Their "Old Time Movies" booth at Sadie Hawkins was a success along with their Christmas party. Half way through the year, President Susan Goodman was injured in a skiing accident. The annual dinner, held at the La Parisien, topped off the year in the usual French style. Under the direction of Mr. Mel Therrien, the French Club year proved quite a success.

The Ski Club made a few Sitzmark's on the slopes this winter. Under the direction of Mr. Richard Benepe and with the help of Mr. Skip Skinner, the club was able to come back from their many trips with a limited number of injuries and few cases of frostbite. Some were ski bunnies and some skied the weidlen, but one thing is sure — enthusiasm was not lacking.

AFS Club

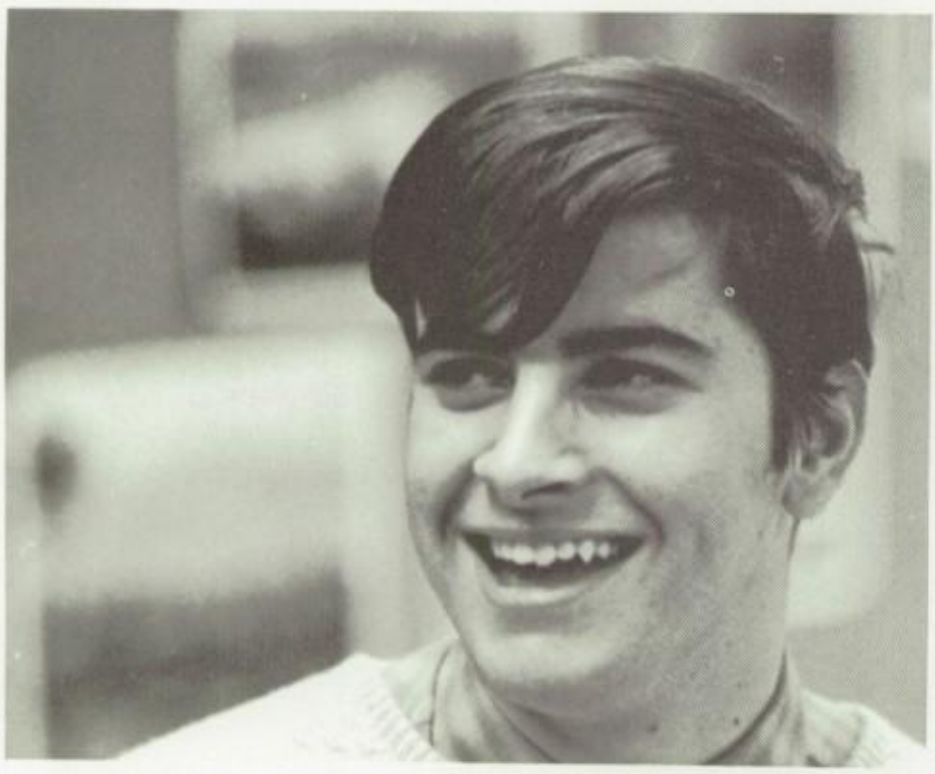
Highland Park had the privilege of having two American Field Service students this year: Sergio (Checho) Elgueta from Chile, and Ginny Radford from New Zealand. Mimi Gingold, a Highland Senior, went to Turkey this summer, also under AFS sponsorship. These three have had many exciting and broadening experiences and have been sharing them with Highland students throughout the year.

Besides sponsoring Ginny and Checho, the AFS Club had other activities during the year. A Halloween party, a Mardi Gras, and an AFS Day were highlights of this AFS year.

From the moment I arrived everyone has been so friendly, considerate, and helpful, that I have been made to feel a part of the school, and this has meant a great deal to me. Leaving one's own country, particularly when it is a small one, enables you to get a better idea of what other people, of different backgrounds, are like. I have found Americans are justifiably proud of their country, but are willing to hear other opinions. I am very grateful to everyone who was concerned with my year here.

Small details of school life are the things I will remember particularly: the football games, Homecoming, Sadie Hawkins, the crowds in the halls, and the snowy days!

Virginia Radford
New Zealand



Coming from Chile to the United States, I learned about people with different customs. I hope that during this year I have brought you something of my country and its people.

From my first day at Highland, I met many helpful and friendly people. All of the experiences I have gained here will always be part of my life: Homecoming, Halloween, Sadie, and standing up at football games yelling "Scot power!"

It was great knowing you, Highland High. Your song will always be on my lips, like a red and white trumpet, playing "Stand up, stand up and cheer for our Highland High."

N.H.S.

The fifty-six members of the National Honor Society were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, school service, and character. This year the society contributed much to Highland. Members served as tutors to Highland students and monitors of Honor Study Halls. They kept the college catalogue library up-to-date and added books to Highland's library.

F.H.A.

This is the first year that Highland has had a chapter of the Future Homemakers of America Club. The purpose of this club is to train young girls in the field of home economics. The members sold paper flowers at Sadie Hawkins and made tray favors for use at a home for the aged.

Chess Club members: Ruben Hoch, Dan Coonan, Larry Hegberg, Mr. Gorka, Jim Sultan, David Perry, and Mark Peilen, Pres.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, under the direction of Mr. Edward Gorka, competed in the Twin City Chess Tournament this year. The club members practiced diligently all year, by playing chess against each other.

Orchestra

This year Highland Park is fortunate to have a Chamber Orchestra. The orchestra performs at assemblies, accompanies the choir's musical, performs at other schools, and participates in concerts. They also attend workshops, have speakers, seminars, and go on field trips.

On-the-Job Training

On-the-Job-Training gives students who are not planning to go to college their first experiences in the working world. In this first year of the program at Highland, there are thirty-six participants. Mr. Albert Hanzel is the coordinator. In addition to working with people, accepting responsibilities, and using a checking account, the participants learn the trade they are interested in.

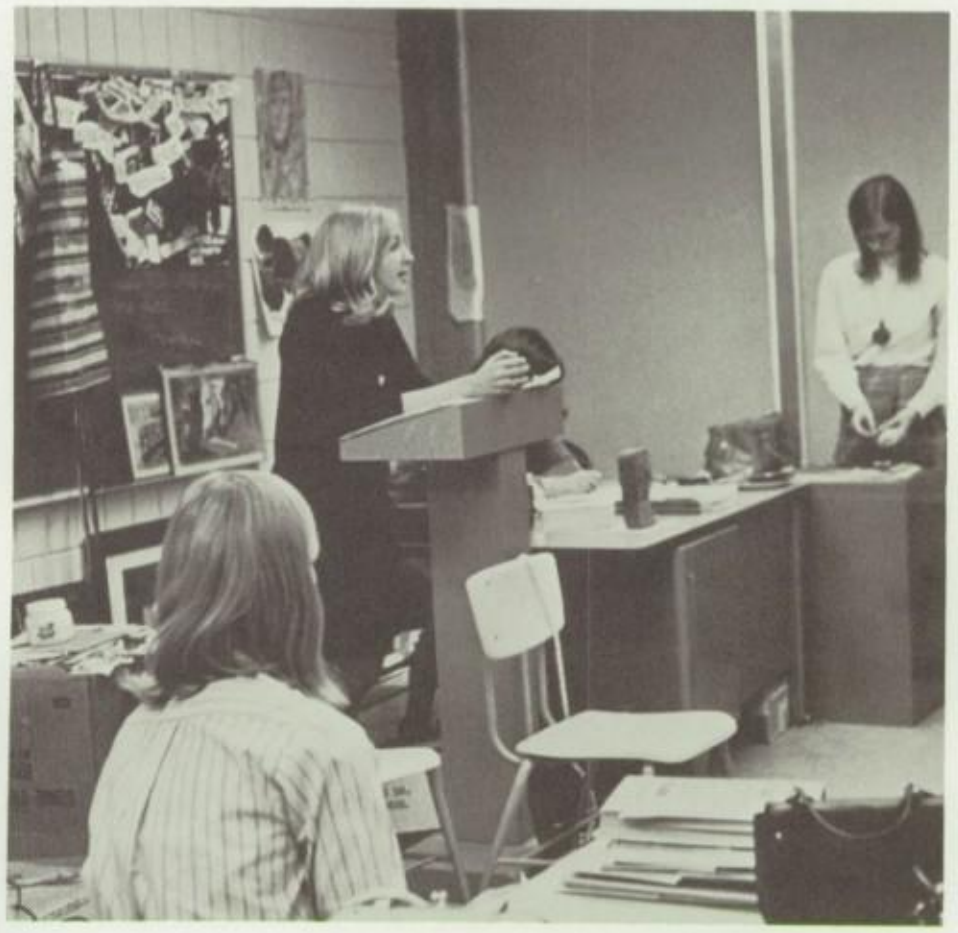
Red Cross

This year Red Crossers tutored students at Baker Elementary School. In March the club sponsored the Red Cross Youth Fund. The Red Cross also sponsored a booth at Sadie Hawkins, and had many instructional meetings about Red Cross projects all over the world.

Co-Presidents Marylou Matoush and Julie Hiebert.

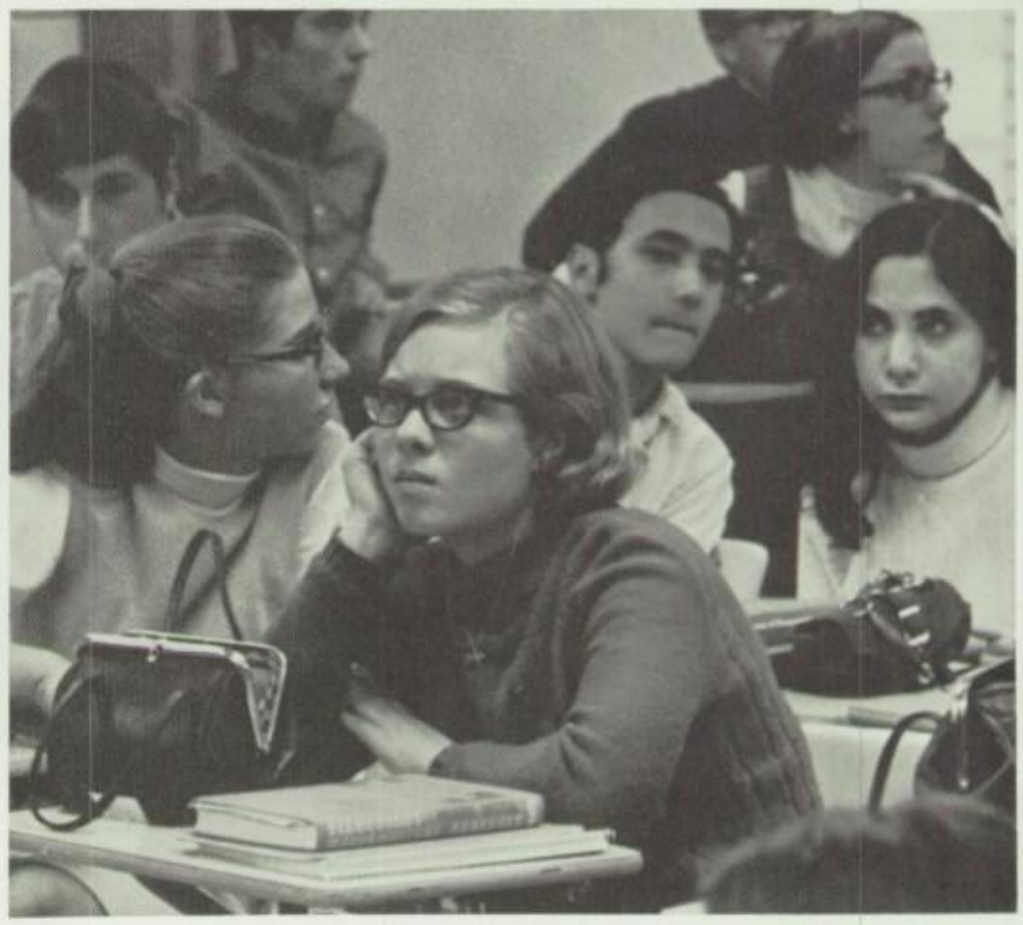


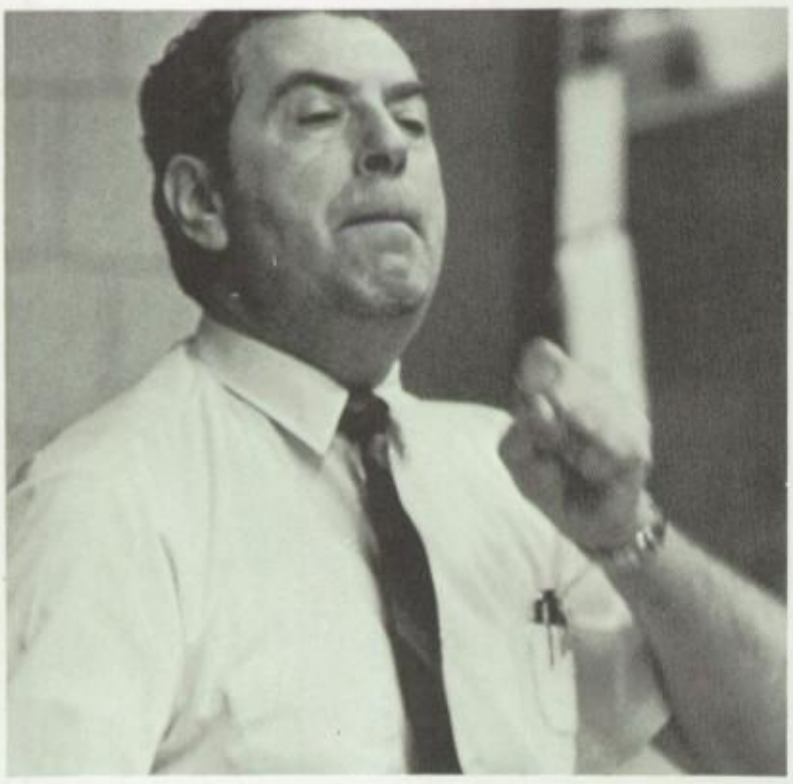
Marylou discusses future plans at a meeting.

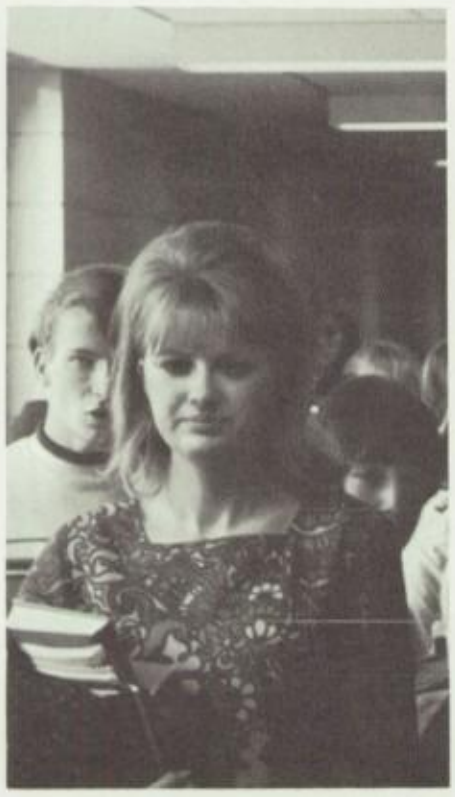
Science

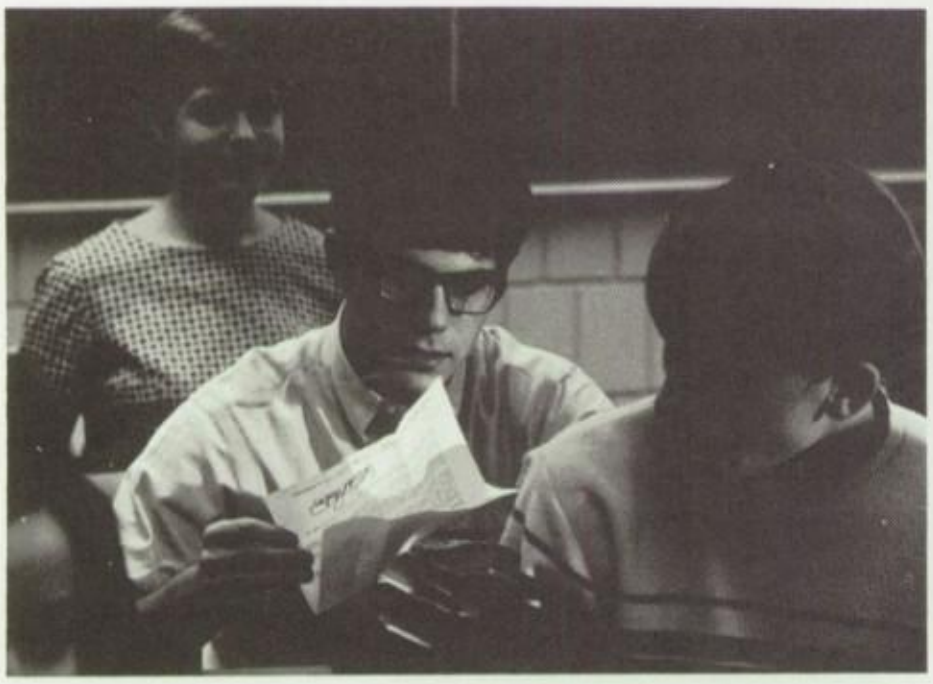
For the science-minded individual Highland has an active Science Club. This year the club listened to many interesting speakers speak on such varied subjects as metallurgy and anthropology. Several field trips were also part of the year's activities. The Science Club sponsored a Sadie Hawkins booth.

Officers: Earl Grinols, Treas.; Roger Kreidberg, Pres.; Jill Rusterholz, Sec.; Dan Kelm, Vice-Pres.









PEOPLE

FACULTY

June 2, 1969, marks graduation day for approximately five-hundred-fifty seniors at Highland Park Senior High School. Tomorrow brings new fields, new challenges, new goals.

Post-graduation from high school requires planning and achieving. Accept the assignments that are yours for the day, the year and the decade. Learn to be an idealist. If you do and there are others like you, our nation and our world will be richer.

William J. Scanlan
Principal

This yearbook, the 1969 Tartan, illustrates by photographs and written word the important activities carried on by you and your school mates during the past school year. As time goes by you will occasionally open this book and recall with a nostalgic feeling the many happenings and incidents that occurred during your high school days at Highland Park. For all of you we hope these experiences were pleasant and valuable in preparing you for the future.

You will find, as the Highland students that went before you have experienced, that your training here at Highland has given you a good background to meet the requirements for a happy and productive life. Our best wishes go with you to that end.

Class Of '71

The Sophomore Class is very eager to make the best out of their high school years. They are very energetic and hard-working students. Under the guidance of Mr. Edward Gorka, they will achieve many of their goals, and strive to learn an awareness of their fellowman. The outstanding event sponsored by the Sophomore Class was the "Sophomore Mixer" where Queen Vicky Henderson and King Bruce Mills were chosen to represent the students.

Officers are from TOP TO BOTTOM: Richard Dworsky, Vice-Pres.; Harriet Peilen, Sec.; Ricky Cohen, President; Guy Green, Treasurer.

Mr. Charles Skinner lead the Junior Class through a year filled with spirit, eagerness and enthusiasm, second to none! During the year we have not only been involved academically but we have also sponsored many successful activities. Three of our most outstanding accomplishments were the talent show, carnation sale and the Junior-Senior Prom.

As this school year at Highland draws to a close, senior class President, Mike Funk, has these challenging words for his fellow graduates:

"In June of 1969, as members of the senior class, you will go out into a big world, a world of many trials. I am sure that as graduates of Highland Park Senior High School, the knowledge and pride that you have obtained will help to guide you on your journey through life.
Good luck in the future."

Our twelve years in school have shown us some of the mistakes that the previous generations have made. Now, through experience and effort, it is up to our generation to correct them.

As the leaders of tomorrow, accept the challenge of our future and carry on Highland's newly acquired tradition.

Senior Class Trip

April 18 . . . a crispy 6:30 A.M. 136 seniors and six chaperones boarded a plane destined for Washington, D. C. Three bus trips and two cities later — Gettysburg and Philadelphia — they found themselves in New York. Then 136 seniors returned to St. Paul April 22.

Junior Sponsored Activities

Long hours of work and preparation went into making this year's prom the success that it was. Carnations were sold for Valentine's Day and in April the school was treated to a rip-roaring block-buster treat: the Junior Class Talent Show! On the night of May 10th all the "Southern Belles and Beaus" danced the night away to the melodic strains of the Rod Aaberg six piece orchestra.

"Strange Bedfellows"

On the evenings of May 8th and 9th the Highland Park Scotch Capers, under the direction of Mr. Dick Morrison, presented the second play of the year. "Strange Bedfellows" is a satire on women's suffrage during the early 1900's. The play takes place in San Francisco in the home of Senator Cromwell, which overlooks the Barbary Coast. When women's suffrage leader Clarissa Blynn enters the family, the whole town is disrupted—especially the Cromwell family.

"How can you think of two things at once?"

"Don't you know your lines yet?"

Debbie Joy,

Remember in junior high when I'd be sitting at a table all by myself and you'd sit with me till Sharon Johnson came. And the time those guys picked us up and we got in a car accident and Betty forgot her pants. And when we tried out for pages in our sophmore year. That's when we started being friends and over the past 3 years our friendship has grown and now we're the very best of friends. Never forget the beach with Ronnie and Nicholas and that horrible night with Ronnie and Roberto. New Years Eve with Johnny and Nick B. And final banquet when Stepner kicked us out cause we were with a guy. And when we got lost at the airport with Carl and Little Lip. And the times we doubled like with Michael and Buddy and Bob Ryan and that worm Ron. And waiting in the can at school till 8:30 when one of us wasn't there. And I know you'll never forget Snyders - our first job! I still say we're not little shits but whatever Mr. P says goes so — after two years of planning for California we're almost there. It's down to 3 weeks and we're off. I'm so excited; this summer is really gonna be just fantastic. I know when school starts next year we're gonna stay best friends so we can have some more wild times. One of these years we might even get our license! And you get your hair cut. And maybe someday all the guys at work and at Apple Barms will get our names straight. Debbie, what more can I say. These three years have been just too much and we've survived with only having one fight about you inviting Howie Sher to Beau-Empress. And with George going from me to you to me and who knows who he's with now. And when Pene died and you were crying at work and I started crying. We're one in the same and I know a friendship as close as ours is gonna last forever. I might as well close this like I do everything else like my daily notes to you — See ya later!

Love,
Bobbi

Deb -
Sitting behind you in English sure has been different! Whenever I got real bored
I'd sit here & watch your hair grow - now that's desperate! Best of luck and keep smiling.
Love,
Cathy Locke
